Sir,

I have the honour to state that in a meeting held on the 26th August 1899, the Sagar Town Municipal Board resolved to levy octroi duty of one anna on every sheep and goat and 4 annas on every maund of tobacco; imported into the Town. A Copy of the resolutions is herewith submitted for information.

2. The rate sanctioned for Honnali recently is higher — 1 anna per sheep and 8 annas per maund of tobacco, and the matter were remitted for reconsideration to the Municipal Board

Board as to why those rates should not be adopted but the Board represent that 3000 sheep and goats and 1600 maunds of tobacco are likely to be imported into the town annually, and Rupees 600/ will be collected yearly if the duty proposed is imposed

3 I request that sanction of Government may be accorded to this proposal, to impose a tax of one anna on every head of sheep and goat, and anna as fine for every maund of tobacco imported into the municipality.

4. The Sayer Income will look after the Collection work on payment of an allowance of 2 Rupees per mensem without prejudice to his work; and sanction is solicited also for this arrangement

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
